

Mr. Spooner, I believe the Dudgeons were here only for paid security. Noble M<sup>c</sup>Kinty (Ashland or Grant, Newaygo Co.)
was Sheriff of Newaygo Co. then.

Dudgeon home locality was "Hardscrabble" in rather lonely
northern part of that Co.

I may be mistaken on the "Hardscrabble" - confusing it with a crime I reported White still in Newaygo Co.

White Cloud County Clerk,
named Hooker (Chris first name Harry) would front up the record for you without doubt outside of paid stuff.

Mr. George Hurst became a divorcee, and married Lloyd Sanderson. Mr. Hurst's health failed eventually. The Sandersons live on Spruce St. The former Sheriff's wife recently lost her youngest son (Hurst) in the War. She is busy, I imagine she'd be especially receptive to the Dudgeon days - but perhaps.

If you are just bringing up the chronological aspect to that "crime cycle", why the records in the home county would be enough I imagine.
